

MRI ELIGIBILITY FOR GENERAL PRACTITIONERS

Children under 16

SCAN OF HEAD*

- ▷ Unexplained seizure(s)
- ▷ Unexplained headache where significant pathology is suspected
- ▷ Paranasal sinus pathology which has not responded to conservative therapy

SCAN OF SPINE*

Following radiographic examination

- ▷ Significant trauma
- ▷ Unexplained neck or back pain with associated neurological signs
- ▷ Unexplained back pain where significant pathology is suspected

SCAN OF KNEE*

- ▷ Internal derangement

SCAN OF HIP

Following radiographic examination

- ▷ Suspected septic arthritis
- ▷ Suspected slipped capital femoral epiphysis
- ▷ Suspected Perthes disease

SCAN OF ELBOW

Following radiographic examination

- ▷ Where a significant fracture of avulsion injury is suspected which will change management

SCAN OF WRIST

Following radiographic examination

- ▷ Where scaphoid fracture is suspected

Adults over 16

SCAN OF HEAD*

- ▷ Unexplained seizure(s)
- ▷ Unexplained chronic headache with suspected intracranial pathology

SCAN OF CERVICAL SPINE*

- ▷ Suspected cervical radiculopathy
- ▷ Suspected cervical spine trauma

SCAN OF KNEE*

Following acute trauma

- ▷ Inability to extend the knee suggesting the possibility of acute meniscal tear
- ▷ Clinical findings suggesting acute anterior cruciate ligament tear
- ▷ 50 years and over, not eligible

SCAN OF PIP IMPLANTS

For GP-referred MRI examinations

- ▷ Scan of one or both breasts for the evaluation of implant integrity where patient is known or suspected of having a silicone breast implant, manufactured by Poly Implant Prosthèse (PIP)

*3 services per 12 months